DRAFT Class Schedules Available August 1

By the end of the day on August 1, schedules will be available on PowerSchool. I cannot stress enough that these schedules are not final schedules. Changes are still being made to balance class sections and to meet the most possible needs. In fact, SIGNIFICANT changes are still possible during the week of August 1-5. After August 5, they should be fairly stable but changes are still possible.

Schedule corrections can be requested online. CLICK HERE for more information.
