

WCPSS At A Glance

- Wake consistently ranks as one of the top public school systems and top communities in the nation for educational opportunities and quality of life.
- We are committed to academic success for all students, and are committed to achieving a 95% graduation goal by 2020.
- We will open 5 new schools for 2016-17, bringing the total number of newly opened schools to 53 over the past 13 years. To accommodate the district's continued growth, WCPSS will open an additional 8 schools by the year 2018.
- With competitive local salary supplements starting at 17.25% above the NC base pay for teachers, our district offers the highest teacher salaries in the state.
- Our district employs more Nationally Board Certified Teachers than any other district in the nation- a distinction we have held for the last 10 years.
- WCPSS is surrounded by excellent post-secondary institutions including: NC State University, UNC-Chapel Hill, NC Central University, Duke University, Shaw University, St. Augustine's University, Meredith College, and William Peace University.
