Good morning Cary High...Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance (count to 5)

I pledge allegiance, to the flag, of the United States of America,, and to the republic for which it stands. One nation,, under God,, indivisible,,with liberty and justice for all.

TODAY

All Ambassadors must report to Student Services for the first ten days to assist counselors with schedules and students.

We are excited to announce that our school has been selected to participate in the 2019 National Assessment of Educational Progress, also known as NAEP. It is the largest continuing and nationally representative assessment of what students across the country know and can do in a variety of subjects. Some of our 12th-grade students have been selected to take assessments in math, reading, science, and writing. The test will take place on February 5 during periods 1-3. For those who have been selected for this important test, you will receive information sometime this week. Thank you in advance for your involvement.

The Army recruiter will be in the 11 building main lobby today during lunch. Stop by and explore the many exciting careers the Army offers.

TOMORROW

Girls Who Code will meet Thursday at 2:30 in Room 2134.

Meredith College is offering a women's conference for juniors interested in sharpening their leadership skills. Stop by student services for information. Deadline is Friday.

Freshmen/sophomores interested in joining alpha beta for spring semester, stop by room 301 for applications. Applications are due Feb. 1.

If you enjoy stunting and tumbling at a more competitive level, come to the stunt interest meeting on January 31 in room 2123 during A lunch! Make sure to come to find out more information.

Be sure to follow us on Twitter at cary underscore chatter for more announcements.

Have a great day Cary.
