Good morning Cary High...Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance ( count to 5)

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America. And to the republic for which it stands. One nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

TODAY

This week we are celebrating the US Constitution. The Constitution was signed on September 17, 1787. The Constitution is a guardian of liberties that established our Republic as a self-governing nation dedicated to the RULE OF LAW. Think about the first three words—WE THE PEOPLE. This is a document for people who live in our nation. In almost every part of the world today, people are struggling for many of the basic rights that we Americans have. But the ideals expressed in the Constitution cannot function without an educated public. Today, life in America calls for a high level of leadership in our schools, communities, states, and the nation. Use this week to learn about and celebrate the achievements of those courageous individuals who struggled to balance a limited government with the rights and the responsibilities of American citizenship."
