Varsity Boys Soccer came from behind to win 4-0 vs. Riverside. Bilal Natchet and Carlos Perez scored for the Imps.

JV Soccer won 2-1 against Durham Riverside on the strength of 2 goals by Emerson Ayala Recino.

Key Club is sponsoring a service project to help raise money for Nolan Turner using Key Club and COTA (Children's Organ Transplant Association).

Nolan Turner, a Junior, was born with spina bifida (spine-ah biff-a-dah) and one of the complications is kidney failure. Nolan has begun dialysis (die-al-e-sis) 3 times a week, for 4 hours each time, and is on the kidney transplant list. Through October 13th, "Nickels for Nolan" donation boxes will be in classes and, in addition, there will be a table set up at homecoming accepting donations, along with information on Nolan and becoming an organ donor. Thank you for supporting one of our own! Let's show Nolan what Imps can do for their fellow Imps!

All FBLA members and potential members walking in the homecoming parade should attend a meeting in room 2210, today, during A Lunch.
