

Always be Kind Week

October 23rd—October 27th

In honor of Bully Prevention Month

THEME DAYS

Brentwood Elementary School is participating in a county wide effort to promote National Bully Prevention Month this October. Some of the activities students will do this week include decorating the classroom doors to reflect our ALWAYS BE KIND promise to each other, dressing up for theme days, and learning the difference between mean moments and bullying. Always be kind week is a good reminder of the importance of treating each other with respect and acceptance.

Monday, October 23rd
“Being a friend is no sweat”

Wear your favorite sweat pants and sweatshirts.

Tuesday, October 24th
“We are a team at Brentwood!”

Wear your favorite sports team gear.

Wednesday, October 25th
“Put a sock in it! We don’t say mean words.” Wear your most fun, colorful, crazy socks.

Thursday, October 26th
“I want to be a _____ , not a bully. Students should dress up for a career they want to be when they grow up. Don’t forget to join us for Engineering Night!!

Friday, October 27th
“Put unkind behavior to bed. We are kind kids!”
Pajama day!
