Quarter 3 / Semester 2

The 3rd quarter (2nd semester) started this past Friday. Students received a copy of their schedule in homeroom. If they were absent Friday, they should see their homeroom teacher on Monday morning to receive the schedule.

This is a great time to review academic goals for the school year. Please talk with your child about their goals for the remainder of the year. Please reach out to teachers if you have any questions about their progress in class.

Report Cards

We will be mailing 2nd quarter report cards this week so they will hopefully arrive by the end of the week.

District 4 BAC Meeting

NC Check-In #2 - English Language Arts

We will have our second NC Check-In for ELA on Tuesday, January 28. It is important that students arrive on time to school that day. There will be no checkouts until testing is completed around 10:00am.

The NC Check-Ins 2.0 at grades 3–8 are the through-year formative component of the North Carolina Personalized Assessment Tool (NCPAT) system. The purposes are to

- provide educators, students, and stakeholders with immediate and detailed feedback on student performance on grade-level-specific content standards to inform instruction for individual student's needs; and
- provide a reliable estimate to inform a student's end-of-grade (EOG) assessment experience.
