Permission Form to Leave School after Exam Period has Ended

- Due to a change in practice a few years ago, high schools can no longer release early after exams. Thus, the exam schedule is based on that requirement.
- During Final Exams, some Exams will end earlier than 2:18 p.m. If a student does not have permission to leave school, he/she will remain in a “study hall” that will last until the end of the day. Students will not be allowed to be outside of this post exam session for the remainder of the day.
- Students are expected to take exams at the scheduled times. Students must be present at the beginning of the exam period to take the exam and must remain for the entire exam period. Students cannot be “checked out” during an exam period.
- Students may leave Athens Drive High School after the exam period has ended with parental permission only. The parent will have to arrange transportation and the student must leave campus.
- Students must turn in a signed copy of this permission form to their teacher on the day of that exam.
- Any student leaving after the exam period has ended must leave campus. They will not be permitted to “hang out” on campus, including being in the Library.
- Any student who does not have written parental permission to leave campus must report to the “study hall” post exam session until 2:18 p.m.
- While in “study hall,” students will only be allowed to quietly study, read, or listen to music. They will not be allowed to get up and move around the room.

I give my son/daughter permission to leave the Athens Drive campus after the exam. I understand, that I am responsible for my child’s transportation. I understand, that by my signature, my child must leave school grounds and he/she may not ride the bus home on that day. I understand that if my child remains on campus, he/she will have to be in study hall post exam session and can only be released if I, the parent, signs him/her out at the attendance office.

In signing this release, I agree to hold harmless Wake County Public Schools, Athens Drive High School, and any of its agents in case of accident, injury, illness or death.
