Dear Parent/Guardian

Rolesville Middle School is committed to providing all students with an excellent education. At the end of the school year, your child will participate in the regular administration of North Carolina End-of-Grade (EOG) tests. Students who score Level 3 or higher on these assessments are considered proficient. Students who do not score a Level 3 or higher on the regular administration and are on track to pass for the school year have the option to participate in a Remediation and Re-administration opportunity on the dates listed below.

Should your child meet the criteria for the Remediation and Re-administration opportunity, and you choose for your child to participate, during the remainder of the school year after testing, we will continue to provide your child with daily instruction focused on helping them reach proficiency on the EOG assessments. A re-administration opportunity is provided to eligible students during this program. The retesting and re-administration program will be held here at Rolesville Middle School. Transportation will be provided, and breakfast and lunch will be available.

We have the opportunity to provide these remediation and readministration opportunities for our students who qualify on the last two days of the school year. These last two days will be repurposed such that not all students will attend on these dates. Only the students who qualify and choose to participate will be attending. If your family has a unique situation on these final two days such that this adjustment creates a situation where you need support, please contact our school counselor to discuss options.

Our school will provide remediation and a re-administration of tests on the following dates:
