Students not selected for their first-choice school are assigned to the applicant pool for that school even if they are selected for their second or third choice. An applicant can be in both an early college, magnet and a Year-Round applicant pool.

If a student applies to both a magnet school and a year -round school, the year-round application will be processed first. If they are selected for the YR, they will be assigned to that school and the magnet application will not be processed. If they are not selected for the YR school, they will be assigned to a non-numeric wait list for the YR and the magnet application will be process. If they are selected for the magnet, they are assigned to that school. If they are not selected, they will be assigned to a non-numeric wait list for the magnet school. You may be on two wait lists.
