PERSONAL PROFILE

I graduated from NC State University in 2003 where I received my certification in Language Arts and Social Studies Education. Throughout my teaching career, I have taught and enjoyed both subjects.

I am happily married to Chad Smith and together we have 3 beautiful children, Allie, Ryan and Kristin. My husband is a huge fan of UNC, so we live in a "house divided".

I have a strong passion for history. I also love watching football, reading, going to the beach and spending time with my children. I enjoy teaching and look forward to another great year at Holly Grove Middle.
