Get Connected!

At Wake Young Women's Leadership Academy, we believe extra-curricular activities play a vital role in helping students to develop important traits such as leadership, responsibility, dependability, honesty, cooperation, and pride. For this reason, we offer a wide range of activities to meet the needs of our student body.

Order of the Owls - The council consists of representatives from each GLC at every grade level who are elected at the beginning of the school year. Order of the Owls stays busy all year with its various projects and we are looking for leaders who are interested in getting involved, making decisions, and serving those in need. Would possible presidential candidate, Hillary Clinton be excited to see you run?

- Meeting times: Thursdays 2:30 - 4:30
- Advisor: Mrs. Watkins and Mrs. Terry
- Room: B4A

Junioresettes (9th & 10th Grade) - This is a service oriented organization consisting of young women who are responsible for assisting the WYWLA community whenever needed. First Lady Michelle Obama will salute your service!

Meeting time: Second Thursday of the month - 2:30 - 4:30

- Advisor: Ms. Hardin
- Room: Side Dining Hall

National Junior Honor Society -

Open to 8th Graders Who Were Inducted Last Year - The National Junior Honor Society is the nation's premier organization established to recognize outstanding middle level students. More than just an honor roll, NJHS serves to honor those students who have demonstrated excellence in the areas of scholarship, leadership, service, citizenship and character. These characteristics have been associated with membership in the organization since its beginning in 1929. Susan B. Anthony would be proud!

- Meeting times: Thursdays 2:30 - 3:30
- Advisors: Keisha Smith, Jasmine Frantz, and Genevieve Bilanzich
- Room B15

Battle of the Books/Friends of the Library

- In Battle of the Books students read books from a list of 27 titles. Students will battle with other Wake County Schools in a Quiz Bowl competition centered on the details of each book. Club will also include fun activities centered on our favorite books!

This is a place where Lois Lowery would want to be!

- Meeting times: Tuesdays 2:30 - 4:30
- Advisors: Mrs. Dupree and Mrs. Gloden
- Room: Media Center

Photography Club

- Photography Club provides students with a creative outlet and an opportunity to share their artistic talents. Students will look closer at the world around them related to that theme/topic. This club highlights the artistic talents of our student body as well as provides them some education and background in the field of photography. You might be the next Annie Leibovitz!

- Meeting times: Thursdays - 2:30 - 4:00
- Advisor: Mr. diCarlo
- Room C02

Be the Critic - Film Club

- Have you ever watched a movie and said "Wow, how did they do that?" Well, then film club may be for you. Come explore and analyze what makes a film a classic or a blockbuster, but more importantly how they impact our culture. Sofia Coppola would scream, "Action!"

- Meeting times: Tuesdays 2:30 - 4:30
- Advisor: Mr. Trout
- Room C13

Performing Arts Troupe

- Want to be a star? WYWLA needs you. The goal of this club is to build a performance troop to perform at WYWLA events. Be ready to act, sing, and dance. Auditions are required. Dream a dream: you could be the next Anne Hathaway!

- Meeting times: Tuesdays 2:30 - 4:00
- Advisor: Mrs. Mance
- Room B16

“If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, you are a leader.”
John Quincy Adams

Global Writing Club— Since we are living in a global world, we need to understand the world around us. This club will allow you connect with other teens who are living in Tanzania, Africa. The goals of the club are to exercise our communication skills while learning about those outside the United States. Kira Salak a writer and professional adventurer would want you to reach outside our “Raleigh bubble”.

- Meeting times: Tuesdays 2:30 – 4:30
- Advisor: Mrs. Wormald
- Room C03

Going Green - The focus of the club is encouraging environmental awareness. One of the main functions that the club serves is to make sure that students at WYWLA have the opportunity to and are encouraged to recycle plastic bottles, aluminum cans, and papers. We also promote awareness with our bulletin board which will feature information about "green" initiatives. If you are concerned about our environment and the impact that we humans have on it, become an Eco Warrior. Cynthia Giles who runs the EPA would give you two “green” thumbs up!

- Meeting times: Tuesdays 2:30 – 4:00
- Advisor: Mrs. Jernigan Baker
- Room: B4A

Science Club — This club is for students who have a natural enthusiasm, interest, and passion for science exploration. Students will be involved in inquiry-based hands-on activities and researching various science topics. These activities will prepare them for a competition. Calling all future Marie Curie’s.

- Meeting times: Tuesdays 2:30 – 4:30
- Advisor: Mrs. Crumley
- Room B3

Jazz Band — Come make Ella Fitzgerald proud!

- Meeting time: Wednesday
- Advisor: Mr. Coats form GMS

Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) GRADES 8-10

Members participate in a variety of activities including job shadow programs, community service projects, and American enterprise projects. Members can earn recognition on the local, state, and national levels! If you are interested in developing leadership, communication, and team skills, or simply looking for an organization to meet and network with others at the local and state levels, then FBLA is the organization for you. Irene Rosenfeld who gained Cadbury Chocolate for Kraft Foods would say this club is sweet!

- Meeting time: Second Tuesday of the month - 2:30 – 4:30
- Advisor: Mr. Reed
- Room: B6

SHINE — Do you ever wonder if your opinion matters? Do you wonder how to have strength in difficult situations, or what your purpose is? If so, you should check out a new club to WYWLA, SHINE! We will discover ways to make healthy choices and live life to its fullest potential. At each meeting we will discover and discuss 3 essentials: every girl is valuable, has strength, and a purpose! SHINE club is for middle AND high school girls. Oprah Winfrey SHINES because of her strength and goals!

- Meeting times: Tuesdays 2:30 – 4:00
- Advisors: Mrs. Keith and Mrs. Love
